

Adaptation of Academy of ICT essentials for government leaders in Mongolia

L. Ariunaa, Intec Co. Ltd

D. Baigal, AoM

Overview

- Our accomplishments
- Our future plans
- Challenges/Opportunities

Our accomplishments

- National Workshop in December 2008
- E-government module delivered at the National Police Academy for chiefs of police departments

National Workshop of Academy of ICT essentials in Mongolia

- Date: December 10-12, 2009
- Venue: Conference Hall, Government House
- Over 50 representatives of Government organizations:
 - Heads of ICT departments of Line Ministries;
 - Management and Senior officers of Government Agencies;
 - Program Managers of International Organizations;
 - Representatives of educational institutions.
- Modules presented:
 - Module 1 “The Linkage between ICT Applications and Meaningful Development”
 - Module 2 “ICT for development Policy, Process and Governance”
- Localization of the content: translation and including local content (Mongolian MDGs)

National Workshop of Academy of ICT essentials in Mongolia

- Trainers:
 - Dr. Usha Rani Vyasulu Reddi
 - Mr. D. Odgerel, Director of Postal Department, Information and Communications Technology Authority, Mongolia
 - Ms. L. Ariunaa, CEO, Information Technology Consulting Company – Intec Co. Ltd.
- Other:
 - APC ICT Governing Board meeting
 - Participants from ESCAP and APCICT

National Workshop of Academy of ICT essentials in Mongolia

- Modules delivery modes:
 - Presentations of modules
 - Local Case studies
 - On Universal Service Obligation Fund
 - DREAM-IT project
 - Rural Education and Development Project (READ)
 - Openness and transparency of Government information and services
 - On-line psychological service for health professionals
 - Developing Human Capital
 - Development of ICT Policy in Mongolia
 - Legal and regulatory reform in Mongolia
 - Group works
 - Presentations from groups

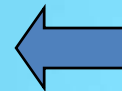

National Workshop of Academy of ICT essentials in Mongolia

National Police Academy

- Training for chiefs of police of rural provinces and districts of Ulaanbaatar
- Date: February 17, 2009
- All modules were proposed for training
- Selected ICT applications

Our future plans

- National Implementation Plan for roll-out of Academy of ICT essentials in Mongolia is to be developed
- Parties involved currently – PPP:
 - Academy of Management (AoM);
 - Information and Communications Technology Authority (ICTA);
 - Intec Co. Ltd
 - Civil Services Council (CSC).

Our future plans

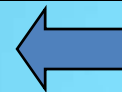

- Assess current situation and demands of government leaders on modules of Academy
- Conduct national training of trainers workshop to have resource people for different modules
- Lobby for including Academy of ICT essentials for government leaders modules into training for civil servants at AoM
- Lobby to include Academy of ICT essentials for government leaders into degree courses
- Conduct training for private sector and representatives of NGO
- Using modules for training conducted by other organizations, such as World Bank, ADB, USAID, etc.

Our future plans

- Conducting Second National Workshop on Academy of ICT Essentials for government leaders
 - At central
 - Local (provincial) level

Tentative dates	Training	Modules	Period
June 2009	The first provincial level training	Module 1, 2 and 3	One week
September 2009	The second national workshop	Module 4, 5 and 6	3 or 4 days
December 2009	The second provincial level training	Module 4, 5 and 6	One week
TBD	The third provincial level training	Module 7 and 8	3 or 4 days

Challenges/Opportunities

- Support and leadership from government on Academy
- Funding issues
- Need to build local resources for training
- Localization of content
 - Translation
 - Development of case studies
- Cooperation with other government entities, NGOs and private sector.

Thank you for your attention

ariunaa@itconsulting.mn

Phone/Fax: 976-11-328570

baigal@aom.edu.mn

Phone/Fax: 976-99022575

