

Indonesia Webinar on Data Protection and Privacy

24-27 August 2021, 9:30am – 11:30am (Jakarta time)

The Ministry of Communications and Informatics (KOMINFO) of the Republic of Indonesia and the Asian and Pacific Training Centre for ICT for Development of the United Nations Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific (ESCAP) will organize the webinar on Data Protection and Privacy from 24 to 27 August 2021, 9:30 am to 11:30 am (Jakarta time).

The webinar aims to enhance understanding among policymakers, regulators and civil servants on the importance of data privacy and protection; emphasize the role of data privacy legislation; and share information on international frameworks and good practices from selected countries. It will contribute to Indonesia's efforts for strengthening data protection and privacy in the country.

Webinar Structure

The webinar will be divided in to the following 4 sessions:

- Session 1: Data Privacy in Data Driven World. This session will look into the history of Data Privacy legislations. Two cases that demonstrate the importance of data privacy will also be discussed: Surveillance Capitalism (an economic system centered around the commodification of personal data with the core purpose of profit-making) and Privacy and the Pandemic.
- Session 2: The Evolution of International Privacy Principles. This session will focus on the international frameworks that influenced (and continue to influence) national data privacy legislations. These are: The OECD Guidelines on the Protection of Privacy and Trans-border Flows of Personal Data (1980, 2013); APEC Privacy Framework (2015), ASEAN Framework on Personal Data Protection (2016) and ASEAN Framework On Digital Data Governance; and the EU General Data Protection Regulation (2018). Privacy laws of key Asia Pacific jurisdictions will also be discussed.

- Session 3: Good Practices on Data Privacy Regulation. This session will present and discuss the data privacy laws and regimes of Republic of Korea, Singapore and other selected countries.
- Session 4: Summary of Days 1-3 and Prospects. This session will summarize the main takeaways of previous session and discuss the prospects and way forward in terms of data privacy law formulation and implementation in Indonesia.

The event is designed as an online seminar (webinar) to be conducted over 4 days (2-hour session per day) from 24 to 27 August 2021 from 9:30 am – 11:30 am (Jakarta time).
